

age +5

New!
Frumpty
and Cohen Seadance

wydawnictwo
ada'mada

written by Jakub Garstka
illustrated by Adam Pękalski
64 pages | Hardcover
format 225x225 mm
ISBN 9788374208413

- a light-hearted, amusing story with original likeable creatures engage and encourage the reader to keep turning the pages to find out what will happen next
- word play and humour build up a child's literary sensitivity and develop his or her linguistic competence
- the imaginative descriptions and incredible world of the story develops children's creativity
- the wonderful illustrations from a world-renowned Polish illustrator perfectly reflect the content and consolidate interest in the narration
- handy book format, short chapters, large font for easy reading (for children just starting to read), keeping novice readers engaged

This collection of charming stories brings together a whole galaxy of eccentric heroes: the good-natured Frumpty, his grumpy friend Scrapman, the younger sock-stealer Clanker and many other unusual characters. One day, this small community is shocked by news of the appearance of the mysterious Cohen Seadance. For defensive purposes, the creatures build a fence, but this decision turns out to be somewhat unfortunate. No one knows whether Cohen is on this or the other side of the fence. How will the residents of the Neighbourhood deal with the threat? They are sure to come up with something completely out of the blue.

This upbeat story packed with imagination invites the reader into its world to meet Frumpty and his friends and join them in some momentous events such as the storm or the end of the world. The colourful, exuberant illustrations by Adam Pękalski perfectly reflect the mood of the story.

foreign rights:
Magda Szpyrko-Ankiewicz
mankiewicz@adamada.pl
+48 58 764 62 86
www.adamada.pl
address:
Al. Grunwaldzka 413
80-309 Gdańsk Poland